What's on this week: 24-30 July

A group show of pioneering minimalist women artists is showing at the CAB Fondation until the end of the year. Figures on a ground. Perspectives on minimal art (pictured, above) presents artists with varying approaches to their medium that defy easy categorisation. They include early protagonists, the American artists Carmen Herrera, Agnes Truitt, Gloria Graham, Mary Obering and Meg Webster, as well as Canadian-born abstract painter Agnes Martin and Belgian artist Marthe Wéry. Until 12 December, Wednesday to Saturday, 12.00-18.00, 32-34 Rue Borrens
